WHAT HAPPENS IF I GET STOPPED ON THE STREET BY IMMIGRATION AGENTS?

- Do not run. Remain calm.
- If officials ask for your name, you must tell them. You do not have to answer any other questions.
- You can ask if you are free to go. If the answer is yes, you may walk away calmly.
- It is best not to lie or carry false documents with you.

ARE ICE AGENTS APPROACHING ANYONE THEY THINK THEY CAN DEPORT?

ICE agents typically identify their target in advance. They then search for the individual at various locations such as homes, courthouses, shelters, and workplaces. Lately, they have been increasingly making arrests on the street.

YOUR RIGHTS

- You have the right to remain silent and do not have to discuss your immigration or citizenship status with police, immigration agents, or other officials. Anything you tell an officer/immigration agent can later be used against you in immigration court.
- If you are not a U.S. citizen and an immigration agent requests your immigration papers, you must show them if you have them with you.
- If an immigration agent asks if they can search you, you have the right to say no. Agents do not have the right to search you or your belongings without your consent or probable cause.
- If you're over 18 and have a valid green card or work permit, carry it with you at all times. If an immigration agent requests to see these documents you must show them. Do not carry foreign papers like a passport. If you don't have valid documentation, tell the officer that you want to remain silent and contact your lawyer.

WHAT CAN I DO IF IMMIGRATION COMES TO MY HOME?

- Do not open the door.
- Ask the official(s) if they have a warrant. You can ask the official to pass the warrant under the door.
- Confirm that the warrant has been signed by a judge and has your correct name and address. Only a warrant signed by a judge allows immigration officials to enter your home.

Resources: Information provided by Immigrant Defense Project & CT Law Help

- Remember that a warrant of removal/deportation (Form I-205) does not allow officers to enter a home without consent.
- An arrest warrant will name the person they are looking for but will not be signed by a judge. If they only have an arrest warrant, you do not have to agree to let them search your home.
- You have the right to ask for the names and badge numbers of the officers and say you did not agree to the search.
- You have the right to remain silent and to ask to speak with an attorney.

Note: If immigration officials take items from your home, keep a record of what they took and ask for a receipt for the items.

WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS IF I AM BEING ARRESTED BY ICE?

- You have the right to remain silent. You have the right to speak to a lawyer.
- DO NOT LIE. It can only hurt you in the future.
- Do NOT share any information about where you were born, what your immigration status is, or your criminal record.
- You do NOT have to give them your consular documents or passport unless they have a warrant from a judge listing these documents.
- Do not sign anything.
